

CHAMBER BOARD TO PASS ON EXPOSITION PLANS

Would have Richmond represented by regular Bureau at San Francisco Fair.

W. T. DABNEY WILL TAKE CHARGE

Series of Great National Conventions to Be Impressed With Advantages of Richmond.

The board of directors of the Chamber of Commerce will meet this afternoon at 1:30 o'clock to pass upon several important projects of municipal advancement and advertising, which have been favorably reported by committee. Of foremost interest and importance is the proposal of the convention committee to establish a San Francisco during the four pleasant months of the Panama-Pacific International Exposition. In 1915, a convention bureau to work in the interest of Richmond as a convention city, and through its medium, captain Richmond's advantages. The convention committee has come to the suggestion recently with a great deal of enthusiasm, regarding it the most effective system of telling delegates to the big commercial and industrial associations of the advantages of Richmond.

The committee recommends that W. T. Dabney, business manager of the chamber, with proper assistants, be placed in personal charge of the bureau at the exposition. The bureau will be engaged in the huge convention hall, where hundreds of international and national associations will gather in convention during the progress of the San Francisco fair. Literature describing Richmond's advantages will be provided in quantities to be distributed by the convention bureau to all visitors at the exposition.

WILL INVITE MANY BIG CONVENTIONS TO RICHMOND

In addition, Mr. Dabney will appear before each convention and present the invitation of the commercial interests of Richmond to make this city the place of meeting in 1916. Practically all the national organizations of importance have met in San Francisco in 1915, and without failing from the convening hall. Mr. Dabney will be able to do yeoman's work in behalf of the world. Of course, a large amount of money will be required to finance the operation of the bureau, and this is to be secured by a canvass of the commercial interests of the city those directly benefited will be asked to contribute the major portion.

Richmond, an entirely new venture. For other cities it has accomplished remarkable results in past years. Even the Chamber is planning to open its convention bureau at San Francisco, while the same scheme is being agitated in Atlanta and other cities of the South.

It has long been the policy of the chamber not to solicit funds from the people of Richmond except for the regular membership in the organization, and while the financing of the convention bureau would constitute a departure from established custom, the temporary abrogation of the rule for this great opportunity to advertise Richmond would, in the opinion of the committee, justify the exception.

INDIAN CHIEFS SPEND TWO DAYS IN RICHMOND

Turn Tables on Tourists by Gazing at Sights After Most Approved Fashion.

The many chieftains, highly painted and feather bedecked, who are visiting Richmond on their return to Glacier Park, Montana, yesterday created considerable attention from hundreds of curious passers-by as they stood in the rooms of the Richmond Transfer Company on Main Street. Crowds thronged about them during their stay there, and others hung about in the vicinity of their private car in the railroad yards.

An extensive program, which calls for a visit to the Mayor and the Governor and an automobile tour of the city, has been prepared for their entertainment to-day, and the red men will be duly displayed. They will be shown all of the sights of Richmond. Their visit to one of the large tobacco manufacturers will probably be one of the things which will interest them most.

The party will leave Richmond tonight at 8:30 o'clock, going direct to Baltimore. They will spend a couple of days there before proceeding to Philadelphia, where they are scheduled to remain until Friday. After several days spent in New York, they will start for their Western home. They have been attending the Shriners' meeting at Atlanta, as the guests of the Algiers Temple, of Helena, and the Great Northern Railway.

Many of them are of considerable renown among their own people and the tribes of the West. Several of them have been fighters, and one, Three Bears, is a veteran of fifteen Indian battles. He was captured and taken by him in his last battle with the Sioux. Long Time Sleep may have won that name in the days long past, but he has awakened considerably in recent years, especially in matters of a financial nature, and now is regarded as the richest Indian in the country. He owns many thousands of acres, horses, ponies, and cattle. Medicine Crow, the tribe physician, was among the party which made the trip. He is reported to be quite a brave man, and was much annoyed by his sons.

One of the most interesting members of the party is Little Princess Cecile Ground, daughter of Jack Ground, formerly of Carlisle. Among the others who were in the party are: Fish Wolf Robe, Lazy Boy, Chief Eagle Calf, White Quiver, Bird Rattle, Two Guns, White Calf and the wives of several chieftains. Mr. Herbert, traveling passenger agent of the Great Northern Railway, is a member of the party.

CHARGES RIVAL IN LOVE WITH SLANDERING HIM

Young Woman and Her Father Testify in Suit of Harris Against Lane.

Statements alleged to have been made by a rejected suitor to injure his more successful rival form the basis of a suit for slander, which is now on trial in Hastings Court, Part II. The court is that of W. J. Johnson, of George Lane, who, the plaintiff asserts, has tried to bring him into infamy and disgrace by false and slanderous remarks made to the father of a young woman held in high esteem by him. Damages in the sum of $5,000 are asked for the injury to his character and credit.

Evidence in the suit was taken yesterday before Judge Ernest H. Wells and a jury in the Southside court. It continued until late in the afternoon, and arguments on instructions will be made this morning after which the case will be given to the jury for consideration.

According to the testimony of witnesses, Lane went to the young woman's father, and said:
